The following book would not have happened
without the life of Oaklee's predecessor, the late Snookly.

Nor would this book exist without the strength of my Dad and the love of God and those around me!

Once upon a time there was a puppy named Oaklee.

Oaklee was a beagle puppy.

Oaklee was loved and cared for by her owner, Ronnie.

When Oaklee was a puppy, Ronnie went out and bought her a collar. This is where Oaklee's dog tags hung.

Oaklee loved to play and run through the house.
Ronnie would always be able to tell where Oaklee was by listening to her dog tags clanking together.

On one night, Ronnie took off Oaklee's dog tags and put her to bed.
